A street in an evacuated settlement was named after him by the residents, and his heroism has been evoked by right-wing activists as a symbol of resistance to the disengagement from the Gaza Strip. But for Avi Bieber, the first IDF soldier to refuse military orders in the run-up to the summer evacuation, fame and publicity were the last things on his mind. Even now, close to half a year later, Bieber still speaks about the incident on the Gaza Strip sand dunes with a mixture of anger and excitement. Freshly discharged from the army, Bieber, whose family made aliya from New Jersey nine years ago, speaks freely about his refusal of orders and what pushed him to disobey the military he said he still loved. "Everyone knew I wasn't going to participate in the evacuation and it is as
